- Studio directors determine the Competition level of each dancer. Each routine's level is determined by the level of the dancers registered.
- All entries must register through a studio.

PERFORMANCE LEVELS

Studio Directors determine the level of each dancer based on the following criteria. Please check level placement of all dancers.

Shooting Star Division - This division is for beginner dancers who take 3 or less hours of dance per week and have limited or no competition experience. A dancer in this division may compete in no more than 6 routines. Shooting Star dancers may compete in the Rising Star Division and in All Star Lines and Productions. Shooting Star dancers may compete only 1 solo.

Rising Star Division - This division is for intermediate dancers who take 5 or less hours of dance per week. A dancer in this division may compete in no more than 8 routines. Rising Star dancers are eligible to compete in both the Shooting Star and All Star divisions.

ROUTINE PLACEMENT

NEW: Routines with the exact same dancers must compete in the same age division and level.

Solos - Dancers must compete in the level they are registered.

Duos/Trios - The most advanced dancer determines the level of the routine.

Small and Large Groups - No more than 49% of the dancers may be from a higher level.

Productions - NEW: All Productions compete against each other in the Production Division. Awards are given in the 12 & Under and 13 & Over divisions.

AGE DIVISIONS

- Age Division is determined by average age of performers, Mini 4 - 6, Petite 7 - 9, Junior 10 -12, Teen 13 -15, Senior 16 -20. If the average age of the group is 15.9, the entry will compete in the 15 year old age division.
- Production age divisions are determined by the average age of performers, 12 & Under and 13 & Over.
- A performer's age is determined by their age as of January 1st, 2023.
- Studio directors must be prepared to present birth certificates should a protest arise.
- Routines may compete no more than 1 age division lower than the oldest dancer in the routine, except in the production division.
Example: Any entry with a dancer 16 years old, or older, may not compete in any age division lower than 13-15. The age division of productions will be determined by the average age of all dancers.
- Any person who is visible on stage once the routine has started, and prior to the end of the routine, will be considered a performer and is subject to age division and group size rules.
- Any routine including a teacher is not eligible for overall awards. A teacher is someone who choreographs or teaches class and is 20 years of age or older. Entries with teachers in them may perform for adjudication only. This does not apply to student teachers under 20.

JUDGING GUIDELINES

- Every performance will be critiqued according to the competition level, age, and category by a panel of 3 judges.
- Each judge will use a 100 point scale and will consider Technique, Difficulty, Execution, Choreography, Showmanship, and Overall Effect.
- Performers who exit the stage prior to the end of their performance will not receive a score if the judges do not feel enough of the routine was competed. The performance is eligible to perform again for adjudication only.
- Judges will also take into consideration whether routines are age appropriate and placed in the correct performance level.
- Dancers placed incorrectly will be moved up to the appropriate level regardless of whether the overall has already been given.
- The decisions of the judges are final. Each judge will give a verbal critique for every entry.
- All entries will receive a Diamond, Platinum, High Gold or Gold. Scores will be given to studio directors at the end of the competition.
A RED CARD will be given when a rule break occurs. Rule breaks include, but are not limited to: use of illegal props (baby powder, liquid, glitter, hairspray, paint, confetti smaller than ½ inch, fog machines, and/or strobe lights), incorrect category/level placement, offensive music, prop assembly exceeding a timely fashion and/or extensive clean up lasting over 2 minutes. Judges are granted the right to Red Card any dance they deem necessary. A Red Card will result in an automatic 2-point deduction from total score. Studio Directors will be notified when a dance is Red Carded. A CONTENT AWARENESS note will be given to a studio director when a judge believes the content of a dance is offensive or culturally insensitive. Cultural or racial appropriation and over sexualization for the age division are examples that could receive a content awareness note. Content Awareness notes were created to give judges the opportunity to explain their point of view. There is no point deduction accompanying a Content Awareness Note.
